CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT (CEQA)

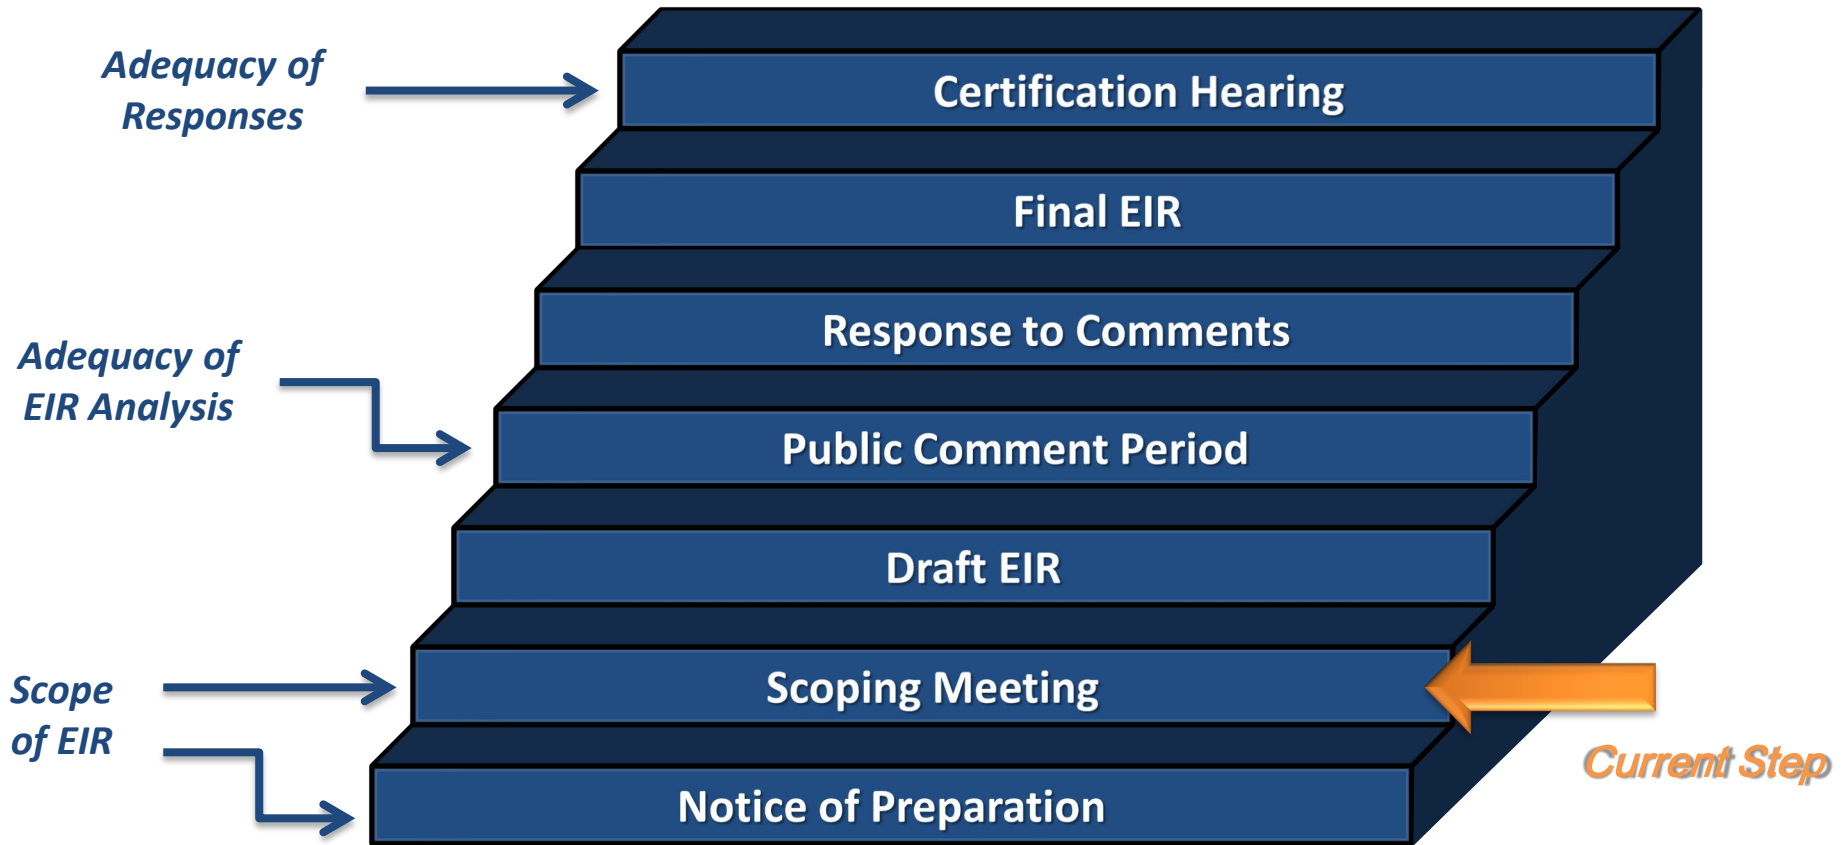

AND THE

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT REPORT PROCESS

- Informational document that informs the public and decision-makers about potential physical impacts of a project
- Informational document that identifies ways to avoid or lessen adverse environmental effects:
 - Mitigation Measures (ways to lessen impacts)
 - Alternatives (other ways of accomplishing the project's objectives)
- Environmental effects are one of several factors considered by decision-makers when deliberating on a project's approval

- To work with City staff to oversee technical documents that:
 - Objectively analyze the physical environmental impacts of the project
 - Identify ways to avoid or lessen impacts
 - Clarify the environmental issues and choices among alternatives
- Prepare the EIR in compliance with CEQA
- The EIR Consultant is not an advocate for the project – the consultant’s task is to prepare the EIR in accordance with CEQA and assist City staff with the CEQA compliance process.
 - The EIR is required to reflect the independent judgement of the City.
