NOTABLE CASES & SPECIAL EVENTS

POP | CSU | Patrol

- On December 7, 2024, Calimesa POP Deputy Hinkle and members of the Cabazon CSU team provided valuable assistance during the Calimesa Christmas Parade. Their involvement helped ensure the safety and smooth operation of the event, supporting both the participants and spectators.
- On December 07, 2024, about 1308 hours, patrol deputies were dispatched to a vehicle vs pedestrian collision, which occurred in the parking lot at 1197 Calimesa Blvd., Calimesa. Deputies learned a red 2013 Lexus 350 struck a pedestrian in the parking lot. The pedestrian was standing behind her vehicle when the Lexus pulled behind the pedestrian. The driver of the Lexus pressed the accelerator instead of the brake. The pedestrian was pinched between the vehicles and possibly suffered a broken left leg. The pedestrian was transported to Loma Linda Hospital.

- On December 09, 2024, about 1916 hours deputies were dispatched the area of W. Ave L and 7th in Calimesa regarding the location of a possible stolen trailer. The reporting party and the original owner of the trailer stated his adult children had observed their stolen trailer in the backyard of one of the homes on the street. Additionally, the reporting party stated a black SUV, possibly a Dodge Durango was parked in the rear as well. Recently, a Black Dodge Durango had been suspected of being involved in the theft of stolen trailers. Deputies responded and stopped a Nissan Titan leaving the location with a trailer attached. It was determined this was not the stolen trailer which belonged to the reporting party. Deputies requested consent to search the backyard from the parties present at the above located address and were denied. Deputies were able to look from and open field alongside the residence and did not see the stolen trailer. Deputies then left the location. At 0006 hours, deputies returned to the location after receiving information the stolen trailer drove away from the location. Deputies located a vehicle towing the stolen vehicle and a traffic stop was conducted at Sandalwood X I10. The stolen trailer was recovered, and the driver was also found to be in possession of methamphetamine. The driver was subsequently arrested and booked into jail.
- On December 13, 2024, members of the Cabazon CSU team conducted further investigation into a violation of a domestic violence restraining order and parental child abduction. The CSU team was able to locate the child and suspect in the city of Fontana. The suspect was taken into custody, and the child was returned to her family.
- On December 19, 2024, Deputies responded to Coriander St, City of Calimesa, regarding a possible vehicle burglary. Deputies arrived and saw one male subject seated in a vehicle and another subject standing outside of the vehicle. When the subject outside the car saw deputies approaching, he fled the area on foot. A perimeter was set up, and the drone was deployed. The first subject was not located and the second subject inside the vehicle was found in possession of drug paraphernalia and stolen property and was taken into custody. Deputies located three victims of theft. A press release was completed.
